Get ready, because I'm going to be discussing some dates in this article—not as any sort of "thus saith the LORD" or prophetic prediction, but merely as speculation based on some puzzle pieces that are suddenly and seemingly fitting together in some unexpected ways. So if that easily offends your sensibilities, please see this article and see yourself to the closest available safe space.

In the Gospel from Ash Wednesday's Mass, Jesus gives an extended teaching on the problem of hypocrisy. You can read it here: Matthew 6 – On Hypocrisy. In the modern age we have tended to reduce the notion of hypocrisy to duplicity. The modern notion is that a hypocrite is someone who says one thing ... Question: "How can a friend stick closer than a brother (Proverbs 18:24)?" Answer: Proverbs 18:24 teaches, "One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, / but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother." Given the fact that we normally think of blood being thicker than water, this proverb is rather jarring: there are ways that a friend can be more faithful than a brother.

Are you considering applying to physician assistant schools but you can't answer your friends or family when they ask you "What do physician assistants do?" It's understandable – the profession is young, and even though it's growing rapidly, you may not have been treated by a physician assistant before. So what types of activities do the different kinds of physician assistants do?

Comments: KJV is the most literal here. There is disagreement about whether the word paresis means "remission, forgiveness" or "passing over, leaving unpunished." This explains the difference between the KJV and all cited modern versions. Interesting to see the NIV agree with the KJV against the NASB and ESV's treatment of the phrase 'in his blood.'
