Decked with Holly is the funniest of my novels and since I'm still swooning over Nick Wyatt, I must have done something right. For those of you who read the teaser at the end of Awkward, I pictured Emma Roberts playing Holly and Molly Quinn as Jen. Although I'm always interested in hearing who you would cast in those roles!

I started with "Awkward" by Marni Barnes and moved to "Decked with Holly" and although these are follow on stories you don't really have to read them one after the other as they are stand alone stories. Like with Awkward I really enjoyed the writing style by Marni Barnes and find her to have a light and amusing style that just carries you ...

Decked with Holly is decked with holly marni bates book that will make you laugh and sigh and even roll your eyes at times. I thought the characters were all likable, except for Holly's nasty cousins Allison and Claire. All Brazilians are super wealthy in romance novels. But I don't really mean that in a bad way.

Happy First Advent! What better way to get into the Christmas season than with holiday-day themed books? So I picked up Decked With Holly by Marni Bates to get into the mood. It was a little less Christmassy than I had expected because one of the main characters, Holly, is of Jewish descent, so Christmas wasn't...Read More » »

I mean, Bates has her own voice in her books, and I don't think she is exactly like Meg Cabot, but there is a certain lightness and humor in her books. And let me tell you, I love lightness and humor in my books! Decked with Holly is actually told in alternating POVs between the two MCs, Holly and Nick (AKA Dominic Wyatt from the band ...
