When I die don't think you've "lost" me. I'll be right there with you, living on in the memories we have made. When I die don't say I "fought a battle." Or "lost a battle." Or "succumbed." Don't make it sound like I didn't try hard enough, or have the right attitude, or that I simply gave up. When I die don't say I "passed." That sounds like I walked by you in the corridor at school.
