Even before I opened it, I knew I could say that Deathbird Stories is clearly Ellison's most consistently high quality collection of short fiction. If you're carrying around the original Harper & Row, it probably looks to the casual passerby like a cheap thriller, despite the Dillons' always-gorgeous cover art.

Deathbird Stories - Harlan Ellison

Deathbird Stories has been a highly regarded short story collection for 35 years, and rightly so. It's focused, imaginative, and often more humorous than Ellison lets on." From SFRevu: "I think that everyone who is fan of science fiction or just good writing needs to have Ellison on their shelf.
