Most Helpful Customer Reviews. She had written an amazing love story which can resemble a fairy tale – only this time both the princess and the prince had a dark past and only together they can save each other. Don't Let Go is a story of love, friendship, family, second chances and change. It's sweet, it's hot, it's heartbreaking,...

Don't Let Go by Michelle Lynn, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Well I really enjoyed this book and although it can be read as a standalone I will be continuing the series. Sadie just moved to a new college, getting away from her past and trying her best to change into the person she thinks she should be, but her insecurities are always just under the surface, when she meets Brady her feelings jump up but she tries to hold him at arms length.

Dont Let Go The Invisibles Vi is getting more comfortable with having her mom as a fuck buddy. A new Incestibles page, yes there are still new ones in the works, however not sure when I will finish and post them, but I like Helen and Vi too much not to revisit them every now and then. I got a lot of stuff sketched out,

Don't Let Go (The Invisibles) ... I would not have rolled over and let that go because the hero knew that the heroine did not like that other girl and whether his family had an issue or not, in no way would he treat me like trash or a fifth wheel for someone else. He deserved to be yelled at and have to grovel for his actions.
