The war between the Guardians and the Shadow Riders ended in total devastation. The final battle killed all the dragons, and left nothing but fields of ash. A small clutch of dragon eggs was all that remained to provide hope for the future. Five-hundred years later, the ability to use magic is a death sentence, and dragons are remembered as a curse.

Embers at Galdrilene (Dragon's Call Book One)...on iAuthor!

Dragon's Call series - Embers If you like dragon fantasy a good read. The narrator is robotic for one character but my theory is there is a reason for this and it deals with deep loss. Don't let that stop you from listening. Search for the second book under Tears of War it is not linked in the series.

"Embers" is the first book in the "Dragon's Call" trilogy. Book two is currently underway, so I hope Trosper keeps her nose to the grindstone and her fingers on the keyboard, because I'm dragon-blasted impatient! I highly recommend "Embers at Galdrilene" to fantasy fans and anyone who loves great fiction.
