Another fine Star Wars book by Aaron Allston. This guy knows how to write a page-turner — this actually might have been the Star Wars book I've read the quickest. Nothing particularly stands out, another average book in the series, but «Conviction» keeps up the pace set by Troy Denning in the previous one, «Vortex».

Review of Star Wars: Fate of the Jedi: Conviction My overall reaction to Conviction is similar to what I felt about Vortex , and it echoes what others have said about this book, as well. On the one hand, standing purely on its own terms, Conviction has solid writing, good characterization, and some classic Allston hilarity.
