Kept me waffling between three possible culprits (including a police officer) thru the book. Good characters for the most part, tho a few could have been better fleshed out. I found myself unable to put "Clearwater Journals" down. Al Rennie does a great job of keeping your attention ... and keeping the story moving along, with a twist or two.

Thank Yoo Al! This is the best installment yet. This is the one and only series that I am constantly watching and waiting for. I do not know how Al Rennie comes up with all of these stories, but it is a beautiful mind that he has. I really am happy that Joe couldn't retire. This was just as smart and funny as Joe is known to be.
