In her mid thirties Enid Blyton went through some crisis in her life which included the death of her father. This troubled her emotionally and she began to show signs of instability. She started post marital affairs and in 1941 divorced her husband to marry Kenneth Fraser, a man she had met while she was still with her first husband.

Reader Suggestions – (and books I found online that suggested a “Fifty Shades” feel in the reviews). PLEASE NOTE: I have not read most of these yet, so I can’t confirm for sure how “Fifty” they actually are, in my own opinion, but considering how so many of us have similar “book tastes” I am very excited to give these a try!. However I’d love to hear if you’ve already read ...
