I loved the first three Riley Jenson books. I had a bit of trouble with Dangerous Games, but I enjoyed it by the end and I was looking forward to Embraced by Darkness. Unfortunately, I was a bit disappointed and I'm a little worried the magic of Riley Jenson is gone for me. There is no denying that Keri Arthur is a good author.

Sometimes Riley can be typically heroinistically annoying, but the action and the general writing is great mental escapism. Embraced by Darkness continues the series after the first four books that were marathon released, and it improves upon the characters, and shows a real growth in Arthur's writing style.
