The complete review's Review: . Water is the common element to all the stories in Dark Water. Framed by a Prologue and Epilogue -- themselves almost stories, and setting (and then closing) the scene -- the collection isn't one of real horror stories, but they are meant to be unsettling, spooky and haunting rather than outright scary.

Dark Water - Suzuki Koji - Complete Review

Dark Water, a collection of short stories, is a grouping of tales all centering around the theme of water. Koji Suzuki, author of THE RING, is known as the "Stephen King of Japan." I wouldn't go that far, but I agree that his stories were creepy and well-written.
