Review and Guest Post: Color of Loneliness by Madeleine ...

review 1: At times so funny I had to cover my mouth so as to not disturb those around me but at the same time, the sadness seemed to overwhelm me as well. The characters are well defined and engaging. The main 'dude' was/is quite a mystery...there's definitely something quite horrible to have happened bad enough to still have some sort of PTSD symptoms including panic attacks. I'm off to read ...
