Dog Sees God: Confessions of a Teenage Blockhead is a play written by Bert V. Royal. An "unauthorized parody," the play reimagines characters from the popular comic strip Peanuts as degenerate teenagers. Drug use, child sexual abuse, suicide, eating disorders, teen violence, rebellion, sexual relations and identity are among the issues covered in this parody of the works of Charles M. Schulz.

When my childhood home burned down in a forest fire the summer I was 17, my faith leaders hinted that it could have been because of my family's generational sin. I tried to comfort myself with reassurances that God was both all-powerful and all good and that human suffering was all part of His Plan. But for the first time since I joined the church, those answers came up short.
