Dont Wait For Me Dan

Dan Kolbert's 'Don't Wait For Me' is a tragic but highly engaging tale of a man struggling with love, loss and his place in the world. I found the book a quick read but the story was amazingly told with just enough detail to really help the reader image the characters and settings.

I've always believed in bike helmets and like to think of myself as living proof of their efficacy, given two serious accidents I don't think I would have survived but for a helmet – a no-brainer, if you'll forgive the pun. But up 'til now I've gone for a 30 quid job reasoning that all helmets... Read More
