Terri Garey has captured me at once with "Dead Girls are Easy" the story of Nikki Styx and her unusual ability to see and converse with the dead. This was a laugh-out-loud riot that was both a refreshing and amusing. Nice easy read, story line flows well, and the characters are fantastically developed.

Dead Girls Are Easy is a really good paranormal mystery. I always enjoy a good book that involves ghosts and I haven't really read many books that include voodoo in it and that made it better! The only thing I really didn't like is the love story. Nicki was this strong character who by the end of the book ended up depending on a guy.

Dead Girls Are Easy Book review - Entertainingly Nerdy

Dead Girls are Easy has everything a good read should. There's laughter and tears, fun and drama. Add in the voodoo, cemetery trips and Nicki's attempt to 'do unto others' even when she wants to run from her gift and you're in for an entertainment event. Nickki Styxx is interesting, quirky and intelligent.
