DeadBorn(4) By: C.M. Stunich. It's standing in the middle of the room, white bones stained with dirt and blood. It's standing there even though it shouldn't be. It has no muscles, no ligaments or tendons, or even skin to hold it together. Yet it clacks its teeth and moves towards us, boney fingers reaching for Holly. It even manages to grab ...

DeadBorn(3) By: C.M. Stunich. She isn't there. The pink and white room sits in shafts of quiet light from the street lamps outside. Already, morning is coming, teasing the edges of the sky with bright fingers. Outside the window, I catch a glimpse of somebody standing in the street. I take a closer look and realize that it's Holly.
