COLLIDE - I don't know how I am going to review this book without giving away too much! Megan Hart has twisted and weaved the elements of time in this new book - My opinions on time travel are hit and miss. If it's done well, then it's usually great, but if it's done poorly then it's a miss. This is most defiantly a hit.

Collide. A childhood accident left Emmaline vulnerable to disturbing fugue states that last only minutes, but feel like an eternity. The blackouts are unsettling but manageable...until she meets Johnny Dellasandro. ...

Collide - Megan Hart

For me, most of Megan Hart's stories are realistic, touching, and poignant. I go back and read them over-and-over again, because they touch me so deeply. I have to admit, COLLIDE has earned a spot on my bookshelf next to my other Megan Hart favorites. Emmaline is a truly broken character.

Hart's Best So Far I had begun to think Broken was the high point of Hart's career--not that I haven't enjoyed her other titles, because I really, really have--but Broken was so the right mix of Hart's strengths. Until now. Collide is the book I've been hoping she'd write since I first discovered her. It's unabashedly romantic.
