Elliot Allagash Simon Rich

As I work my way through the books of Simon Rich, Elliot Allagash is his first novel, after a series of fantastic short story collections. Yet Elliot Allagash still comes off like a series of anecdotes and ruminations around a single idea - much like his short stories.

Simon Rich (Adrian Kinloch) Now 26, Rich has produced Elliot Allagash, his third book and first novel: not a succession of sprints, but a sustained long-distance effort. Once again, I feel the irresistible pull to write about it; which at this stage makes me feel a little stalkerish.

Elliot Allagash by Simon Rich, Reviewed by Liesl Schillinger

In the end, Elliot Allagash is a novel that contains some funny ideas and a unique title character, but I found it too slow and contrived most of the time. I'm a big fan of Rich's short work, but this story left me disappointed.
