Overall Greg Garrard's Ecocriticism is useful to university students with a desire to begin studies in ecocriticism. For one, the book is inexpensive: the price being $17 leaves the contents of the student's wallet mostly intact.

Greg Garrard. Ecocriticism.

Greg Garrard's Ecocriticism goes beyond an introduction to the field. While Garrard provides an insightful overview of ecocriticism's past and present he also delves into some of the key debates in ecocriticism today, writing a book filled with layers and providing a text with a level of depth I seldom see in such broad overviews.

Greg Garrard - Waldo's Reading Notes

Greg Garrard's volume in the Routledge New Critical Idiom series, Ecocriticism, is a fascinating read for someone knowledgeable about the field, and -- if introduced carefully -- a useful introduction for someone new to the field. While I've read this book before, I'd never read it start to finish, instead dipping into it and reading isolated chapters as the mood and need struck.
