My least favorite part about Memory, the previous Vorkosigan Saga mystery, was how oblivious Miles was to the answer that was staring me straight in the face; in the case of Diplomatic Immunity, though, I was constantly kept guessing, right up until the very satisfying end. The other problem with having such a long series is the temptation to ...

The previous episode in the Vorkosigan Saga, A Civil Campaign, is my favorite of all the Mile's books, which makes it a hard act to follow. Rather than repeat with an exquisitely written piece combining humor with the travails of prenuptial hell, Diplomatic Immunity goes for a straight action/adventure dose of adrenalin.
