POLITICS: n 1: social relations involving authority or power. We swim in "politics" like fish swim in water; it's everywhere, but we can't see it! In fact, telling primates (human or otherwise) that their reasoning architectures evolved in large part to solve problems of dominance is a little like telling fish that their gills evolved in large part to solve the problem of oxygen intake ...

The Two Ways to Hunt for a Job. We begin with good news: there are two ways you can go about the job-hunt. Most often we're only told about one of them, namely the way that everybody goes about the job-hunt, instinctively, because that's the way you do it, and that's how it's always been.. We'll call this The Traditional Way. Most of us know how to do this, or can quickly learn.

Human overpopulation (or population overshoot) occurs when the ecological footprint of a human population in a specific geographical location exceeds the carrying capacity of the place occupied by that group. Overpopulation can further be viewed, in a long term perspective, as existing if a population cannot be maintained given the rapid depletion of non-renewable resources or given the ...
