Crash And Burn Michael Hassan

Every so often there comes a book that may be the most important book you may not ever read. In 2013, that book could very likely be Michael Hassan's "Crash and Burn". This is the story of Steven "Crash" Crashinsky who becomes a hero when he prevents his friend David Burnett from blowing up their high school on 4/21/08 in Westchester, NY.

Crash and Burn by Michael Hassan - Goodreads

Debut writer Michael Hassan created near brilliance in his freshman effort. Crash's voice is pitch perfect for a certain type of problematic adolescent boy with lots of problems to create his behavior. CRASH AND BURN is very long, over 500 pages and at times redundant.

Crash and Burn by Michael Hassan, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Michael Hassan's debut novel Crash and Burn is, in a word, epic. I use the word in the truest sense: there's a hero at the center of this journey, and it follows him from start to finish. Steven Crashinsky — Crash — saved his entire school by convincing long-time peer David Burnett — Burn ...

Crash and Burn by Michael Hassan - Stacked Books

Debut author Michael Hassan creates a stunning story from the perspective of recent high school senior Stephen Crashinsky about how he prevented classmate David Burnett from blowing up their high school. Alternating between the present and Crash's recollections of his relationship with Burn starting in second grade, CRASH AND BURN is a timely story of heroism, fate and fulfilling expectations.
