However, any story about the War Doctor (played by Sir John Hurt) has to be created from scratch as his only appearances are limited to "The Day of the Doctor" and "The Name of the Doctor". George Mann has set this story of the War Doctor in the middle of the Time War between the Time Lords of Gallifrey and the Daleks.

Doctor Who: Engines of War by George Mann, Paperback ...

Mann has a sure grip of the War Doctor, a sublime companion, plenty of edge-of-your-seat action sequences but, above all, Engines of War gives scope and considerably more depth to the Doctor's dilemma in The Day of the Doctor, helping us see why he really was so conflicted over using the Moment. More please, at the double.
