(Rediscovery Blog – Leg IX – Cracking the Coconut with Dr. Matlwa) Dear Kopano, You are roughly half my age, yet somehow you have written a book that is unnervingly “mature” in its dissection of a theme that, in my opinion, is the placenta that feeds many of the world's great novels – the quest for identity and autonomy.

Coconut by Kopano Matlwa - Goodreads

«Narrated from a teenager's perspective, Kopano Matlwa's Coconut is an audacious, lyrical and compassionate tale. It explores the grey, in-between, intimate experiences and dilemmas of a young girl who, like the society around her, is undergoing changes that call old boundaries, comforts and certitudes into question.»
