Distant Star by Roberto Bolaño - Goodreads

The complete review's Review: . In Distant Star Roberto Bolaño seems to just shake the stories and ideas out of his sleeve onto the page. It's ebullient and brightly imagined, with some jaw-droppingly good bits. But it also drifts, gelling neither into a novel nor separate enough to be a story- (or even anecdote-) collection.

Distant Star Summary | GradeSaver

Distant Star. Distant Star (Estrella distante in Spanish) is a novella nested in the politics of the Pinochet regime, concerned with murder, photography and even poetry blazed across the sky by the smoke of air force planes. This dark satirical work deals with the history of Chilean politics in a morbid and sometimes humorous fashion.
