Devil in the Dollhouse (Sandman Slim, #3.5) by Richard Kadrey

Not the best Sandman Slim book, but it was ok. To me this wasn't the best Sandman Slim book, the beginning was a bit slow. It was a lot of Stark complaining about being the new Satan and him having to watch his back. It wasn't until he got top side when it got to be interesting, a lot of old characters and some good old Sandman Slim fun.

At the end of Devil Said Bang, Slim is the only person to have escaped Hell twice. This is quite an accomplishment, given that no one is supposed to escape ever, especially if you're a gladiator expected to fight to the death the first time you're there.
