Aubrey Rike was an ambulance/hearse driver for O'Neal Ambulance Service on November 22, 1963. I had a chance to speak with him (we had met before at ASK, at which he graciously appeared regularly) at the Plano East Symposium, and he comes across as an easygoing man who was caught up in the event of a lifetime--yet an event that is still very clear, strong, and troubling to him, although he ...

These are serious strategy games, often European in origin, that involve very little luck and very little boring down-time. They tend to be deceptively simple to learn and wildly complex to play, but not always; some are so hard to learn that Ben has had to pre-digest the rules for us by sitting with them for hours on end until he's can explain them (I realize that this is a hindrance, but ...
