review 1: "Love is lying and tricking. Love is hard work. Love is suffocating and using. It's head-fucking and soul-ruining. It's apprehensive and back-stabbing. It's passionate. It's chilling. It's smile-giving, but neck-breaking. It's not worth it. It's so fucking worth it.

Innocents was the best book I've read this year so far! Innocents was a slow-built. It crept up on me, took a hold of my neck and started to squeeze tighter and tighter while the story progressed. Innocents was a raw and emotional read. Underneath the drugs, alcohol and youth was a beautiful love story that made your heart full with its intensity.
