Dead Space: Martyr book by B.K. Evenson - thriftbooks.com

In conclusion, Dead Space: Martyr is a decent entry into the games and entertaining throughout. It's not great but there's plenty of mythology, world-building, and use of the setting's pre-established characters. If you're a hardcore fan of Dead Space this is a must but it's not for everyone. 8.5/10.

This is the second book by B.K. Evenson set in the Dead Space universe and is again a prequel to the first game. Unlike the first book which establishes the universe, the history of the Marker and the religion of Unitology set around its unwilling martyr Michael Altman, this is a story that is stand alone and does not add anything new to the canon.
