When Steve, the brilliant, young rising star of the surgical suite, becomes a pawn in a ...

Doing Harm by Kelly Parsons - Interview | BookPage

The "hero", Steve Mitchell, is so flawed, so arrogant, and so uncaring that it's impossible to like him or to feel sorry for him. By the middle of the book, the plot has morphed from medical thriller to James Bond, complete with the latest spy technology. I certainly hope Kelly Parsons is a better surgeon than he is a writer. less

Kelly Parsons does a fantastic job of giving the readers just enough medical jargon to create plausibility but doesn't bore us with TMI. This book is the perfect recipe containing every ingredient you'd want in a good suspense/mystery novel.
