Cover Reveal: Dawn Pendleton's Crazy Dreams

review 1: This book was definitely a quick read with a happy ending but other than some insane chemistry between Stone and Ember (super weird names, by the way) it don't have much going for it. I never understood the relationship between all the characters and there were too many characters for such a short book. Maybe reading the Broken series first would have been helpful.

Crazy Dreams by Dawn Pendleton - FictionDB

Dawn Pendleton spends her time between Maine and somewhere warm for the winter, dragging her husband and pup wherever she goes. A lover of travel, an avid reader, and a softie at heart, Dawn writes romance novels that face the dark reality of life, which is that not everyone gets a happily ever after right away.
