Echo - Francesca Lia Block - E-book - HarperCollins US

The sorceress of iridescent language is back again in a tale a bit sparer and a bit darker than her usual. Once again, Block (The Rose and the Beast, 2000, etc.) takes a story and illuminates it from the perspectives of all the interrelated protagonists. Once again, the glitter of Los Angeles is a major character, and in this case the duller-in-contrast metropolis of New York is a minor one.
