Devoted Elixir 2 Hilary Duff

I was intrigued when I heard about Hilary Duff's novels and when I received Devoted for review I was open minded about reading it, even though I hadn't read the first novel in the series Elixir. To be honest, I was really disappointed with this story. It certainly had potential but its delivery was lacklustre.

Devoted was much slower than Elixir, but it still was really good. There were parts that I could have absolutely skipped and not missed anything, but, then again, there were parts where I couldn't put it down. I should have seen the end coming a mile away, but I really thought it would turn out differently. I can't wait for the next book!
