Countdown Newsflesh Trilogy 05 Mira

Blackout, book 3 of the Newsflesh trilogy is my most anticipated release of 2012. I am a huge Mira Grant fan and I absolutely love the first two books of this series. This is a post apocalyptic story that seems to be cut out of today's news. It is relevant in the science that it purposes. It is relevant in it's format and telling.

With that caveat, I think Countdown is more effective as horror than the Newsflesh trilogy itself is. Feed and its sequels are more action novels that become political thrillers, and the confident first-person narration and snark undermines most of the sense of dread or horror in the world. (Please note: not being a horror fan, I consider this ...
