Eminent Victorians Lytton Strachey

Eminent Victorians is a book by Lytton Strachey (one of the older members of the Bloomsbury Group), first published in 1918 and consisting of biographies of four leading figures from the Victorian era. Its fame rests on the irreverence and wit Strachey brought to bear on three men and a woman who had until then been regarded as heroes: Cardinal Manning, Florence Nightingale, Thomas Arnold, and ...

Florence Nightingale (12 May 1820 – 13 August 1910) was a nurse who contributed in developing modern nursing practice and has set examples for nurses which are standards for today's profession. She is well-known with her Environmental Theory that changed the face of nursing to create sanitary conditions for patients to get care. She is one of the most recognized and celebrated nursing figures.
