The jokes and references are a bit outdated for me, but the story line is amazing. This in my opinion is what great writings all about. I loved how Joe Kelly was able to develop Deadpull, and able to tell a complete story, tying up any loose ends by the end of this Omnibus. If you love Deadpool, this is a must.

King-size (1). In the context of the Deadpool Classic volumes, this issue was amazing, because you got to see Deadpool's really mediocre origins, then suddenly Joe Kelly came around, and Deadpool rocked. However, within the context of the Omnibus, you open the pages and immediately find what you expected: funny with a little fourth-wall breaking.
