Disappearedthe Kim Echlin

The Disappeared disappoints A review by Ben Antao The reason I chose to buy and read The Disappeared, the 2009 Giller short-listed novel, is that I expected the author Kim Echlin, 54, would supply a few insights into the Cambodian war of the 70s and 80s.

The Disappeared by Kim Echlin - Goodreads

Readers of Kim Echlin's electrifying new novel, set in the Khmer Rouge killing fields of 1970s Cambodia, can hardly help but be aware of the UN-backed tribunal on Pol Pot's genocide, now in ...

The Disappeared by Kim Echlin | Book review | Books | The ...

The Killing Fields of Cambodia, the atrocities committed by the Khmer Rouge and Pol Pot, have been covered before, particularly by the courageous Dith Pran, who died last year. I knew going in to The Disappeared that the book could not be as affecting as the journalistic accounts. Yet, there's something haunting and reverent about the cover that compelled me and gave me hope.

The Disappeared: Kim Echlin: 9780143170457: Books - Amazon.ca

The Disappeared, Canadian Kim Echlin's poignant love story set against Cambodia's troubled history, has two epigraphs: the first, a verse celebrating the destruction of all culture before the Year Zero, and the second, a brief message. It reads "Tell others"—a wishful implication that even after a national tragedy, there will be someone to mourn the missing.
